

CITY HALL, CITY OF LODI,
TUESDAY, January 2, 1923.

This being the date set for the sale of bonds to issue upon the security of the unpaid assessments on Oak Street, (Resolution of Intention No. 54), Locust Street, (Resolution of Intention 55), Rose Street, (Resolution of Intention 56), and Cordier Street, (Resolution of Intention 57), and it appearing that notice of said sale had been published properly as required by law and resolution of the Board of Trustees, the Board proceeded to publicly open and declare the bids received for each of the above lots of bonds, which bids were as follows:

For the Locust Street Bonds, the Lodi National Bank bidding par and accrued interest, the sole bidders;

For the Oak Street Bonds, the Lodi National Bank bidding par, accrued interest and $12.50; the sole bidders;

For the Rose Street Bonds, the Lodi National Bank bidding par, accrued interest and $12.50, the sole bidders;

For the Cordier Street Bonds, the Lodi National Bank bidding par, accrued interest and $12.50.

It appearing that the bids in the above were in proper form and accompanied by the specified bidding deposit, the Board proceeded to award the bonds to the Lodi National Bank by the passage of the following resolutions by the vote displayed after each:

Resolution of Award No. 364 awarding the Lodi National Bank the Locust Street Bonds at par and accrued interest:

AYES: Trustees Hickok, Mettler, Hale, Spooner, Shattuck.

NOES: None

ABSENT: None.